You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

After the own occupation period of disability, you will be considered disabled if, as a result of a physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder, you are unable to engage with reasonable continuity in any occupation, or you are working in an occupation but as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder you are unable to engage with reasonable continuity in that occupation or any occupation.
